DETAILED ACTION

Claims 1-9 are currently pending in the instant application and are subject to the following new lack of unity requirement.

Election/Restrictions

Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 372.

Lack of Unity Requirement

Claims 1-9 are drawn to more than one inventive concept (as defined by PCT Rule 13), and accordingly, a restriction is required according to the provision of PCT Rule 13.2

PCT Rule 13.2 states that the international application shall relate to one invention only or to a group of inventions so linked as to form a general inventive concept (requirement of unity of invention).

PCT Rule 13.2 states that unity of invention referred to in Rule 13.1 shall be fulfilled only when there is a technical relationship among those inventions involving one or more of the same or corresponding special technical features.

Annex B, Part 1(b), provides that "special technical features" mean those technical features, which, as a whole, define a contribution over the prior art.

Annex B, Part 1(e), provides combinations of different categories of claims and states:

"The method for determining unity of invention under Rule 13 shall be construed as permitting, in particular, the inclusion of any one of the following combinations of claims of different categories in the same international application:

Art Unit: 1626

(i) in addition to an independent claim for a given product, an independent claim for a process specially adapted for the manufacture of the said product, and an independent claim for a use of the said product, or

(ii) in addition to an independent claim for a given process, an independent claim for an apparatus or means specifically designed for carrying out the said process, or

(iii) in addition to an independent claim for a given product, an independent claim for a process specially adapted for the manufacture of the said product, and an independent claim for an apparatus or means specifically designed for carrying out the said process,..."

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions, which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in response to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted. The following groups are exemplary:

Group I: Claims 1-6 and 8 are drawn to a process for the production of an alcohol by the hydrogenation of an aliphatic aldehyde over a catalyst comprising a copper, and zinc compound, comprising the step of treating said catalyst with an organic sulphur compound.

Group II: Claims 7 and 9 are drawn to a process for the production of an alcohol comprising the steps of a)- c) as defined in claim 7.

The inventions listed as Groups I and II do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical feature for the following reasons: they do not share the same essential structural element(s) that define the "special technical feature" necessary to specify a contribution over the prior art.

Group I and II are drawn to different processes for making alcohol from an aldehyde or an olefin under different process conditions. The various process claims all require different reactants and/or reagents and/or reaction conditions and/or products.

Thus, these claims lack the corresponding special technical feature(s) necessary to link them together to fulfill the lack of unity invention requirement.
